This is a handwritten musical score for piano and voice. It consists of several systems of staves. The piano part is written in treble and bass clefs, while the voice part is in a single treble clef. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like de, fin, and baja toda esta parte. A section of the score is marked with a large '4' and a double bar line, suggesting a measure rest or a specific section. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged paper.
